

PAPH Practitioner's Course Working Across Disciplines

By: Guillermo Espinosa – SCDOT Active Transportation Planning Manager

Presentation Outline

1. Policy as the Foundation of Process
2. SCDOT Active Transportation Planning
3. In Process there is Possibility
4. ~~Conclusions~~ Continuing conversation

SCDOT Active Transportation Planning

Internal Coordination

- Road Safety Audits
- Communication and graphic design
- Project Development Teams
- Transportation Alternatives Program
- Business analytics
- Engineering District support

External Coordination

- Metropolitan Planning Organizations & Councils of Governments
- County and local governments
- Other Public Agency Initiatives

In Process there is Possibility

Federal, State, and local initiatives

- Federal Highway Administration research programs
- Walkability Action Institute
- South Carolina Food Policy Council
- Regional/local advocacy coalitions
- Hispanic networking groups
- Congaree Biosphere Region

Conclusions Continuing Conversation

Everybody needs help sometime!

1. Policy is the foundation, process is the structure
2. Identify common goals and challenges
3. Be a champion, empower others to carry the torch
4. Work with your local/regional planner 😊

Questions?

Guillermo Espinosa, AICP

Active Transportation Planning Manager

Email: espinosagj@scdot.org